Re: United States v. Brian Roberson, 18 Cr. 111 (CS)

Dear Judge Seibel:

This letter requests a modification of Mr. Roberson's current bond conditions to allow Mr. Roberson to reside at a new address, as long as it has been pre-approved by Pretrial Services.

On March 29, Mr. Roberson was arraigned in this District on a one-count indictment alleging a violation of securities fraud, 18 U.S.C. § 1348. On consent of both parties, the Hon. Paul E. Davison set a $150,000 unsecured personal recognizance bond requiring that Mr. Roberson reside at his current address, 9119 Gladiolus Preserve Circle, Ft. Myers, Florida.

Earlier this month, a bank foreclosed upon Mr. Roberson's residence and sold it at an auction. Barring relief, Mr. Roberson and his family (his wife and three young children) will be required to move, but the family has not yet secured an alternate residence. Modifying Mr. Roberson's pretrial conditions to allow him to reside at a new address, with prior approval by pretrial, will avoid any last minute issues if Mr. Roberson is evicted sooner than anticipated.

In sum, Mr. Roberson requests that his conditions of pretrial release be modified to allow him to reside at a new address, as long as it has been pre-approved by Pretrial Services.

Neither Pretrial Services Officer Andrew Abbott nor Assistant United States Attorney Aimee Hector objects to this modification.

Respectfully submitted,
